ENSTROM®

Dear Toffee Lover:

We are continually honored to be a part of your family's traditions and memories. The creation of fine confections is the passion of the Enstrom family and sharing it with our friends and loyal fans is what makes the art of candy making so much fun for us. We thoroughly enjoy each touching story about how Enstrom's Almond Toffee has brightened your day or lifted the spirits of loved ones and look forward to you sharing more of these stories with us.

We are proud to still be serving the same handcrafted, perfect blend of California almonds, sweet cream butter, sugar and rich chocolate that Granddad Chet mastered more than 80 years ago. Over the years, his toffee has become a tradition for people far and wide, and his "mom & pop" operation is now a thriving company, shipping toffee all over the world. I'm sure he would be proud to see his great-grandsons join us as the fourth generation of candy craftsmen and know his legacy of excellence continues.

Doug and I, our sons Doug Jr., Jim, and our entire staff sincerely thank you for your loyal patronage throughout the years.

Gratefully,

Jamee Enstrom Simons
